

Denmark's NorthSide announces another 7 acts to already stacked lineup – St. Vincent, Loyle Carner, Benjamin Clementine and more among the new additions.

Pulp, Massive Attack, The Smile, Troye Sivan, Kaytranada, Vince Staples, Slowdive, Amyl & The Sniffers, 070 Shake, and many more have already been announced for the Aarhus-based festival taking place in June. Now another 7 acts have been added to the lineup.

Taking place from June 6th to 8th in the city of Aarhus, NorthSide is widely recognized for its efforts within sustainability that recently earned the festival nominations in no less than four categories at the annual A Greener Festival Awards taking place in London later this month.

However, the 100% meat-free festival is also known in Denmark for bringing some of the biggest names to town and this year is no exception.

With a lineup already counting acts like Massive Attack, Pulp, Troye Sivan, The Smile, Kaytranada (to name a few) the festival is once again gearing up with another announcement.

Thus, St. Vincent, Loyle Carner, Benjamin Clementine, and the rising powerhouse Angélica Garcia have just been confirmed alongside domestic acts UNG-SKAB, Selma Judith, and the Swedish-born but Copenhagen-based artist Lucky Lo.

The 3-day event launched in 2010 and have previously hosted names like Frank Ocean, Radiohead, Tame Impala, Tyler, The Creator, Björk, Queens of the Stone Age, and many more.

The 40.000 cap festival takes place in the city of Aarhus, which is the second largest city in Denmark and runs from June 6th – 8th.
