

Tinderbox adds another 13 names to the Magicbox lineup

Since Monday, the Danish festival Tinderbox has announced several names for the electronic stage Magicbox including headliner Armin van Buuren. Today, another string of prominent electronic acts has been added to the program which is now close to fully revealed.

It's been a busy couple of days for Denmark's Tinderbox festival. First, it was announced that the award-winning Dutch DJ Armin van Buuren will be headlining the electronic stage Magicbox, followed by the news that the extremely popular Danish duo TooManyLeftHands will be hosting a nine-hour party at Magicbox on the Thursday with several exciting guests joining them on stage.

Now, another 13 names have been added to the Magicbox lineup including artists that have been in the game for years as well as those who're just getting started.

Rising Brazilian DJ and producer Öwnboss rose to fame in 2021 with his global hit "Move Your Body" which has currently racked up more than 215 million streams on Spotify. He's joined by Dutch duo W&W, known for their genre bending take on styles like trance, electro and progressive house.

Among the new names you'll also find the two French acts Ofenbach and HUGEL as well as German-Croatian phenomenon Topic, and Dutch house pioneer Fedde Le Grand who'll be returning to Tinderbox with immortal tunes like "Put Your Hands Up 4 Detroit" and "Let Me Think About It".
