

Tinderbox unveils another six names from next year's poster.

The Danish festival is adding Bryan Adams, RAYE, James Arthur, and more to the lineup.

Last week, Lenny Kravitz was announced for Denmark's Tinderbox festival that already had acts such as Avril Lavigne, David Guetta & Morten present Future Rave, Kaizers Orchestra and more on the bill. Now, another six names have been added to the lineup.

2024 will be a big year for Canadian star Bryan Adams in Denmark where he'll be doing a four-stop arena tour in May with tickets already selling fast. However, when the "Summer of 69"-singer returns to Tinderbox in the end of June, it'll be his first festival gig in Denmark in 12 years. Bryan Adams released no less than four new records in 2022 and has released more than 20 albums over the course of his impressive four-decades long career.

Fellow Canadian, the million-streaming pop singer and songwriter Lauren Spencer Smith, has also been announced following the release of her debut album Mirror from July that featured massive hits such as "Fingers Crossed", "Flowers", and "Narcissist".

Two prominent UK acts, RAYE and James Arthur, are also scheduled to play the Odense-based festival next summer. Both artists have amassed billions of global streams and are fan favorites in Denmark where they're playing sold-out venues. It'll be the first time for both artists visiting Tinderbox.

Finally, two highly popular domestic talents have been announced for next summer's lineup. "Group of the Year" at Danish Music Awards, Ukendt Kunstner", is an arena-selling hip-hop duo who recently broke records at Spotify for most streams of a Danish album in 24 hours ever. Saint Clara is an established pop star in the Danish music industry with huge support on both radio and streaming platforms. Her most recent album was the R&B-infused Off released in 2022.

Tinderbox takes place in Tusindårsskoven in the city of Odense from June 27th to June 29th, 2024. Tickets are on sale now at tinderbox.dk.
