Scope: BEUC, together with 13 consumer groups from 13 countries (Albania, Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Denmark, France, Germany, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain and the Netherlands), conducted an evidence-gathering to document the widespread financial scams on Meta, TikTok and Google as well as the limited corrective measures platforms take to prevent their circulation. The screenshots were taken between December 2025 and March 2026. Consumer groups collected 893 examples. This annex does not intend to provide the exhaustive list of ads, but highlights key examples collected per organisation.

Methodology: The full methodology followed for the evidence-gathering as well as its limitations are detailed in the accompanying report.

Participating consumer groups: Асоциация Активни потребители (Bulgaria), Arbeiterkammer (Austria), ASUFIN (Spain) and Federación de Consumidores y Usuarios – CECU (Spain), Consumentenbond (Netherlands), DECO (Portugal), Federacja Konsumentów (Poland), Forbrugerrådet Tænk (Denmark), Qendra Konsumatori shqiptar (Albania), Que Choisir Ensemble (France), Spoločnosť ochrany spotrebiteľov (S.O.S.) (Slovakia), Verbraucherzentrale Bundesverband – vzbv (Germany), Zveza Potrošnikov Slovenije – ZPS (Slovenia) and BEUC (for Belgium).

In addition, the following BEUC members support the action by filing a complaint at national level: ACR Malta (Malta), Asociatia Pro Consumatori – APC (Romania), Consumatori Italiani per l’Europa (CIE) (Italy), dTest (Czech Republic), EKPIZO and KEPKA (Greece), Fédération romande des consommateurs (Switzerland), Fogysztóvédelmi Egyesületek Országos Szövetsége – FEOSZ (Hungary), Forbrukerrådet (Norway), Fundacja Konsumentów (Poland), Kypriakos Syndesmos Katanaloton (Cyprus), Neytendasamtökin - NS (Iceland), Organizacija na potrosuvacite na Makedonija – OPM (Macedonia), Sveriges Konsumenter (Sweden), Union Luxembourgeoise des Consommateurs – ULC (Luxembourg), Unija potrosaca Hrvatske (Croatia), and Vartotojų aljansas (Lithuania).
