Supplements to the Tender Offer Document

The Offeror supplements the Tender Offer Document with the following information in this document (the "Supplement Document"). This Supplement Document constitutes a part of the Tender Offer Document and should be read together therewith.

Supplements relating to regulatory approvals

The Offeror announced on 27 August 2026 by way of a stock exchange release that the Finnish Competition and Consumer Authority (FCCA) has concluded its review of the Tender Offer and issued on 26 August 2026 a merger control clearance decision concerning the Tender Offer. Consequently, the Offeror supplements the section "Background and Objectives", sub-section "Regulatory Approvals" of the Tender Offer Document as set forth below. Based on currently available information, the Offeror expects to obtain ~~such the remaining~~ necessary regulatory approvals to complete the Tender Offer during the fourth quarter of 2026. However, the duration and outcome of the regulatory approval process are not within the control of the Offeror, and there can be no assurances that the remaining necessary clearances will be obtained within the estimated timeframe, or at all."

Information for Shareholders in the United States

Shareholders of Oma Savings Bank in the United States are advised that Shares are not listed on a U.S. securities exchange and that Oma Savings Bank is not subject to the periodic reporting requirements of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), and is not required to, and does not, file any reports with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) thereunder.

The Tender Offer is being made for the issued and outstanding shares of Oma Savings Bank, which is domiciled in Finland, and is subject to Finnish disclosure and procedural requirements. The Tender Offer is being made in the United States pursuant to Section 14(e) of the Exchange Act and Regulation 14E thereunder, subject to the exemption provided under Rule 14d-1(c) under the Exchange Act for a Tier I tender offer (the “Tier I Exemption”), and otherwise in accordance with the disclosure and procedural requirements of Finnish law, including with respect to the Tender Offer timetable, notice of extensions, announcements of results, settlement procedures, withdrawal, waiver of conditions and timing of payments, which are different from those applicable under U.S. domestic tender offers, procedures and law. In particular, the financial statements and all financial information of Oma Savings Bank included in the Tender Offer Document and this Supplement Document or any other documents relating to the Tender Offer has been prepared in accordance with applicable accounting standards in Finland, which may not be comparable to the financial statements or financial information of U.S. companies or other companies whose financial statements are prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

You should note that the Offeror’s ability to waive the conditions to the Tender Offer (both during and after the end of the acceptance period) and the shareholders’ ability to withdraw their acceptances, are not the same under a tender offer governed by Finnish law as under a tender offer governed by U.S. law. U.S. shareholders are encouraged to consult with their own advisors regarding the Tender Offer. In particular, the Offeror may waive conditions to the Tender Offer without offering withdrawal rights, to the extent not required by applicable law.

The Tender Offer is made to Oma Savings Bank’s shareholders resident in the United States on the same terms and conditions as those made to all other shareholders of Oma Savings Bank to whom an offer is made. Any informational documents, including the Tender Offer Document and this Supplement Document, are being disseminated to U.S. shareholders on a basis comparable to the method that such documents are provided to Oma Savings Bank’s other shareholders.

As permitted under the Tier I Exemption, the settlement of the Tender Offer is based on the applicable Finnish law provisions, which differ from the settlement procedures customary in the United States, particularly as regards to the time when payment of the consideration is rendered. The Tender Offer, which is subject to Finnish law, is being made to the U.S. shareholders in accordance with the applicable U.S. securities laws, and applicable exemptions thereunder, in particular the Tier I Exemption. To the extent the Tender Offer is subject to U.S. securities laws, those laws only apply to U.S. shareholders and will not give rise to claims on the part of any other person. U.S. shareholders should consider that the Offer Price for the Tender Offer is being paid in EUR and that no adjustment will be made to the Offer Price based on any changes in the exchange rate.

To the extent permissible under applicable law or regulations, including Rule 14e-5(b) of the Exchange Act, the Offeror and its affiliates or its brokers and its brokers’ affiliates (acting as agents for the Offeror or its affiliates, as applicable) may from time to time after the date of the Tender Offer Document and this Supplement Document and during the pendency of the Tender Offer, and other than pursuant to the Tender Offer, directly or indirectly, purchase or arrange to purchase Shares or any securities that are convertible into, exchangeable for or exercisable for Shares outside the United States. These purchases may occur either in the open market at prevailing prices or in private transactions at negotiated prices. To the extent information about such purchases or arrangements to purchase is made public in Finland, such information will be disclosed by means of an English language press release through relevant electronic media or other means reasonably calculated to inform U.S. shareholders of Oma Savings Bank of such information. In addition, the arranger may also engage in ordinary course trading activities in securities of Oma Savings Bank, which may include purchases or arrangements to purchase such securities. To the extent required in Finland, any information about such purchases will be made public in Finland in the manner required by Finnish law.

The receipt of cash pursuant to the Tender Offer by a U.S. shareholder may be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes and under applicable U.S. state and local, as well as foreign and other, tax laws. Each holder of Shares is urged to consult its independent professional adviser immediately regarding the tax and other consequences of accepting the Tender Offer.

It may be difficult for Oma Savings Bank’s shareholders to enforce their rights and any claims they may have arising under the U.S. federal or U.S. state securities laws in connection with the Tender Offer, since the Offeror and Oma Savings Bank are located in countries other than the United States and some or all of their respective officers and directors may be residents of countries other than the United States. Oma Savings Bank shareholders may not be able to sue the Offeror or Oma Savings Bank or their respective officers or directors in a non-U.S. court for violations of U.S. securities laws. It may be difficult to compel the Offeror or Oma Savings Bank and/or their respective affiliates to subject themselves to the jurisdiction or judgment of a U.S. court.

Neither the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission nor any U.S. state securities commission has approved or disapproved the Tender Offer, passed any comments upon the merits or fairness of the Tender Offer, passed any comment upon the adequacy or completeness of this Tender Offer Document or passed any comment on whether the content in this Tender Offer Document is correct or complete. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offence in the United States.

For purposes of this section "United States" and "U.S." means the United States of America (its territories and possessions, all states of the United States of America and the District of Columbia).

This Supplement Document contains statements that, to the extent they are not historical facts, constitute "forward-looking statements". Forward-looking statements include statements concerning plans, expectations, projections, objectives, targets, goals, strategies, future events, future revenues or performance, capital expenditures, financing needs, plans or intentions relating to acquisitions, competitive strengths and weaknesses, plans or goals relating to financial position, future operations and development, business strategy and the trends in the industries and the political and legal environment and other information that is not historical information. By their very nature, forward-looking statements involve inherent risks, uncertainties and assumptions, both general and specific, and risks exist that the predictions, forecasts, projections and other forward-looking statements will not be achieved. Given these risks, uncertainties and assumptions, investors are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements.
