8.4.2021 09:14:40 CEST | Astralis Group | Company Announcement

Astralis Group is pleased to announce that it has chosen to pursue a dual quotation on the US-based OTCQX Best Market in response to growing US investor interest in Astralis Group.

Astralis Group is currently trading on Nasdaq First North Growth Market Denmark under ticker ASTGRP and the dual quotation on OTCQX Best Market will allow US-based investors to easily purchase Astralis Group shares to gain exposure in the growing esports industry. The listing is expected to increase liquidity. The application process is expected to be finalized within 4 weeks.

"We are pleased to potentially trade on the OTCQX Best Market as it will give our current and potential shareholders an additional and larger regulated platform from which they can conveniently trade our shares. From the company's perspective, it provides added exposure to an expanding US market of esports investors."

Trading on OTCQX will secure increased access for US institutional and retail investors looking to invest in our company and proven business model and it will provide an opportunity to be a part of Astralis Group's continued development as an international leader in the growing, global esports industry."
