Company announcement no. 11 – 2021 Copenhagen, the 29th of January 2021

To strengthen our focus in the North American market, FOM Technologies has established a US subsidiary in Palo Alto - Silicon Valley.

CEO - Michael Stadi explains: “To comply with regulatory rules of doing business in US, we have decided to establish a US subsidiary. With customer interest from various areas in the US, we have discussed the geographical location. Due to close relations to our strategic partnership in Seattle – The University of Washington, we have decided to locate our subsidiary in Palo Alto at the heart of Silicon Valley on the west coast of US”. The FOM US subsidiary will create a platform to increase business opportunities and R/D co-operation projects with US entities.
