Investor news no. 50/2024: German investment fund buys Dataprocés shares

On Friday, recognized German investment fund, DiscoverCapital, chose to invest in Dataprocés. They bought 1 million shares in Dataprocés, since they have noticed the growth that Dataprocés is undergoing. DiscoverCapital thereby obtains approx. 3% ownership of Dataprocés.

Dataprocés' CEO Michael Binderup states:

We at Dataprocés are very proud that the good rates we have shown recently have also been noticed outside the borders of Denmark, and that there is so much confidence that our great growth will continue, that a German investment fund has chosen to buy shares in Dataprocés. Our efforts to attract larger institutional investors appear to be paying off.

We warmly welcome DiscoverCapital as shareholder in Dataprocés and look forward to a long-term good cooperation.
