Correction, now with headline

Contains Internal Information:

A unanimous Board of Directors has today decided to end the collaboration with the CEO Michael Binderup. At the same time, the Board of Directors has chosen to appoint Kasper Lund Nødgaard as interim CEO. Kasper is currently CIO (Chief Innovation Officer) and an employee-elected board member. Kasper resigns from the board of directors and his deputy joins. The Board of Directors has chosen to initiate a process to find the new CEO with the desired profile.

Chairman of the Board Hans Christian Maarup says:

We have been very pleased with the turnaround that Michael Binderup has led and most recently the success of getting two institutional investors on board. Unfortunately, we have to realize that the next steps for Dataprocés must be done with a different profile in order to stand strong in relation to efforts in new markets including acquisitions of companies that will be launched in the coming years.
