Company announcement no. 36, inside information: Dataprocés Group A/S enters pr. the 30th of August 2021 into a strategic collaboration with Poul Schmith/Kammeradvokaten

Strategic collaboration on several areas of the Danish public market

As of today, Dataprocés has entered into a strategic collaboration with Poul Schmidt/Kammeradvokaten with a focus on the Danish public market. The collaboration aims to a joint go-to-market-plan, where we are able to draw on each other's strong qualifications.

The collaboration starts immediately, and is intended to secure the customers of both companies, as well as an even stronger full service regarding cases within social law, which ensures, that the customer will be guided through the entire process – from automation of manual workflows to solutions of complex legal issues.

"I have great expectations to and see enormous possibilities in this strategic collaboration. Both companies have great mutual respect of each other's competencies. I see this, as a strong expansion of the width of the products we offer our customers. I believe that this collaboration will benefit and strengthen our position in the market significantly.", states Kjartan Jensen, CEO of Dataprocés Group.

The collaboration is expected to strengthen both the sales effort, and the framework of the products covering data analysis, MARS and Min Sag. Additionally, the collaboration supports the ambition to expand beyond the Danish municipalities and also focus on the Danish regions and the state.
