Alefarm Brewing is opening a brand new beer garden at the brewery

Alefarm Brewing A/S ("ALEFRM" or "the Company") is a family-run craft brewery with a focus on brewing high-quality craft beer for consumers and distributors worldwide. Today, the Company is announcing that it will open a brand new beer garden at the brewery.

Alefarm Brewing has seen significant growth in sales directly to consumers at the brewery in Greve, Denmark due to a steady increase in customer drop-ins during opening hours Thursday and Friday. To expand on this development, the Company is now opening a brand new beer garden and extending its opening hours to allow for more people to visit the brewery and enjoy fresh beers on-site.

The new beer garden will open adjacent to the tap room, making it possible for customers to consume beers both inside in the tap room and outside in the garden. Expected opening is in June 2021.

Kasper Tidemann, Founder and CEO, gives the following statement in this regard:

"Visiting the brewery to pick up beers for takeaway or to enjoy them in the tap room has become a key part of the brand and story that is Alefarm Brewing. With the increasing number of guests at our premises, we want to improve our facilities in order to welcome even more people and allow for them to share the experience of quality craft beer with us."
